The Arizona Community Foundation of Cochise welcomes nominations for the Nonprofit Organization of the Year. If you know of a nonprofit which has distinguished itself for its spirit of service, this is your opportunity to honor their work.

Awardees will be recognized at this year’s Cochise Celebrates Giving. This event will be free and held virtually via Zoom on Thursday, February 17, 2022.

Nominations must be emailed or postmarked no later than 5:00 p.m. MST on Tuesday, February 1.

Nominations can also be submitted online at www.azfoundation.org/CochiseConnections. Use one form for each nomination.

Contact Regional Philanthropic Advisor Colleen Iuliucci at ciuliucci@azfoundation.org or 520.505.3678 for more information.

About the Nominee

Name of the nominee (organization): ________________________________________________________________

Nominee address: ____________________________________________________________________________

Nominee phone number: ________________________________________________________________________

Nominee email address: ________________________________________________________________________

About the Nominator

Your name: ___________________________________________________________________________________

Your phone number: __________________________________________________________________________

Your email address: __________________________________________________________________________
Please provide the rationale for your nomination addressing the following criteria: (500 words maximum)

- How does the organization benefit the community and/or individual welfare?
- What new projects and/or achievements make this organization worthy of recognition?
- What makes the organization successful in fulfilling its mission?
- What other attributes are significant/relevant to your nomination?

Response:

__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________

Submission
Please return this completed nomination form by Tuesday, February 1 at 5:00 p.m. MST.

By email:
ciuliucci@azfoundation.org

OR

By mail:
Arizona Community Foundation of Cochise
400 W. Fry Blvd., Suite 6, Sierra Vista, AZ 85635