Review and Evaluation Process
All proposals will be reviewed through a competitive evaluation process and ratified by the Arizona Community Foundation of Flagstaff Board of Advisors. The reviewers will be reading the applicants' online profiles on the ACF website to obtain information on the organization. Please be sure to update your organization's profile before submitting your proposal.

- Proposals are reviewed and evaluated by peer grant committee panels, comprised of volunteer community leaders, Arizona Community Foundation of Flagstaff Board of Advisors members, Arizona Community Foundation of Flagstaff Donor Advised Fund Holders, Family and Corporate Foundations who assess proposal strengths and weaknesses according to evaluation criteria.
- Evaluation criteria consists of a point system awarded for impact on community need, measurable benefits, plan for sustainability, partnerships, goals and objectives clearly stated, measurable outcomes, population served, reasonable budget, and if the project/organization enhances collaboration with other community organizations and/or agencies.
- In addition to the volunteer grant committee panel, 2020 grant proposals may be reviewed and evaluated by the following Collaborators: American Society of Civil Engineer’s Northern Arizona Younger Members Group, Arizona Community Foundation, Capstone Health Fund, Ernest and Evelyn Chilson Fund, Forest Highlands Foundation, Geile Charitable Fund, GeoFund, McClanahan Family Unrestricted Fund, Northern Arizona Healthcare Foundation, Taylor & Huntley Financial Group, The Molly & Joseph Herman Family Fund, Stone Soup Fund and W. L. Gore & Associates, Inc.
- Volunteer grant committee panels are constructed annually by the Arizona Community Foundation of Flagstaff Grants Chair, who seeks out panelists that provide diverse cultural, gender, experiential, generational and geographic representation.
- Each grant committee panel is chaired either by a Arizona Community Foundation of Flagstaff Board of Advisors member or Emeritus member.
- Required Interviews:
  A 10 minute interview with Arizona Community Foundation of Flagstaff’s committee grant panel and Collaborators is a requirement to be considered for funding. An organization’s program representative, board member, school principal or department/program head are required to attend the organizational interview. Having both a staff member and a board member is highly recommended and shows strong support for your program. If your agency has a home office based outside of Flagstaff, there must be a representative in attendance who has first-hand experience with the program on a local level (program recipient, staff, etc.). Interviews will take place in July. Interviews will be scheduled in a reverse-alphabet order (Z – A) by the organization’s name; they are required and cannot be rescheduled or changed. Failure to attend the interview will prohibit any funding by Arizona Community Foundation of Flagstaff or any Collaborator for 2020. The interview allows the grant panel to ask clarifying questions and the organization has the opportunity to provide an impact story.

*The grants review panel will score the interviews based on the following:
  - Organizations’ ability to answer questions with knowledge/provide clarity.
  - Impact story: does it support the application and demonstrate community impact?

*Please feel free to use the following rubric as a reference when preparing your application.

Community Fund - A community fund is a local “savings account” where charitable donations are collected to serve a broad array of needs within a defined geographic area. Community funds are endowments—permanent funds in which the principal is invested, with a portion of the returns awarded locally as grants and scholarships.
