The Arizona Community Foundation’s mission is to lead, serve, and collaborate to mobilize enduring philanthropy for a better Arizona.

For over 40 years, we have built relationships to advance this important mission and foster partnerships that support communities throughout Arizona.
OUR CORE VALUES DEFINE WHO WE ARE AND HOW WE OPERATE.
Our culture and our work revolves around the ideas set forth in these seven guiding principles. Developed to align with our mission, they enable us to serve communities across Arizona by creating a strong culture of philanthropy that builds generation upon generation.

Exceptional Service. We serve and amaze our clients, nurturing lifelong relationships that span the generations. Stewardship. We safeguard donor intent in perpetuity, ensuring the resources entrusted to us are protected and invested in positive, sustainable outcomes for our communities. Integrity. We earn the trust of those we serve by operating ethically and transparently, honoring our commitments, and showing courtesy and respect in all aspects of our work. Innovation. We demonstrate and welcome creativity, resourcefulness, and ingenuity. We invite and encourage new ideas, pioneering practices, and inventive methods for achieving community good. Nimbleness. We are flexible, responsive, open to creative strategies and unusual requests, and able to take prompt action. Inclusion. Our strength is found in our differences. We believe diverse voices, engagement, and participation are essential to building and sustaining thriving communities. Collaboration. We believe in the transformative power of partnerships around shared passions and objectives. We encourage and celebrate teamwork, pooling of resources, open communication, and trust.
“Change doesn’t happen without community leadership,” said Steve Evans, ACF board chair. “ACF is fortunate to have access to a substantial wealth of knowledge and expertise in the community through our board, staff, and partners. No matter where you look, individuals, families, and organizations are stepping up to make Arizona better.”
Dear Donors, Partners, and Friends–

The Arizona Community Foundation has begun the next chapter in our story. It was a year packed with new ideas and building for the future; some of which you will relive as you read this report. We proudly debuted our new, refreshed logo at our 40th anniversary celebration and the momentum continues as we roll out new projects and services to the community. This report pays tribute to the work of those who came before us, those making important contributions to Arizona today, and those ensuring a strong and vibrant future.

This year, we want to introduce you to some of the people who make our work possible, impactful, and necessary. Our story wouldn’t be complete without their willingness to create change and invest in our communities.

After 40 years of serving Arizona, we honor our relationships and the causes that are near and dear to you, your families, and our communities.

One of the joys of leading a community foundation is the opportunity to see people forming relationships, joining together to solve common problems, and supporting one another. We are proud to be part of this strong tradition of believing in the power of community. Our enduring commitment to our state, our leadership on important issues, and our local presence are proof that ACF’s relationships are making a difference.

When individuals invest in and create a shared vision for their community, based on the individual ideals of many while paying respect to the common good, we all benefit. ACF plays an essential role in this community building process and we are committed to forming long-standing relationships with you and other supporters of community philanthropy.

We hope you enjoy reading about the people who are working to improve our state, and we thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,

STEVEN G. SELEZNOW

Affordable Housing

In 2007, the Arizona Community Foundation joined forces with the Phoenix chapter of the Local Initiatives Support Corporation (LISC) to launch the Affordable Housing Loan Fund to address the state’s critical shortage of affordable housing. Through collaboration with many local organizations and contributors, the fund has provided interest-free pre-development loans to support 49 housing projects led by nonprofits and community development corporations. A loan from the fund helped kick-start the renovation of the historic Coffelt-Lamoreaux Apartment Homes in south Phoenix.

The Coffelt-Lamoreaux Apartment Homes were the state’s first affordable housing project. When faced with the threat of demolition, dozens of collaborative partners renovated the community. This prevented the uprooting of long-time residents like Chief Villalpando, who has called Coffelt home for 50 years. He has plenty of stories to share about his life, recalling his days as a boxer and the 23 years he spent volunteering at Phoenix Memorial Hospital. Chief now lives with his daughter Rita, who moved to Phoenix two years ago to care for him. “I always say we keep each other going,” said Rita of their relationship. “We keep each other in good company, and we just keep going.”
Vanessa Magill lives at Coffelt-Lamoreaux with her daughter Isabella, her sister Faith, and her two brothers Steve and Charles. Their newly renovated three-bedroom apartment offers a safe and spacious home for her and the children.

Although Coffelt-Lamoreaux is a large complex that houses over 800 residents, Vanessa has formed close connections within the community. During the eight years she’s lived here, she’s found strength, support, and friendship in the property’s management team. “On bad days, I’ll come into the office ready to vent, and they are always there to help and support me,” said Vanessa.
The Coffelt-Lamoreaux Apartment Homes were built in 1953 to house veterans returning from the Korean War. When the community faced the threat of demolition due to unsafe living conditions in 2012, the Housing Authority of Maricopa County, developer Gorman and Company, and dozens of other partners worked to transform the neighborhood into modern, affordable homes for the hundreds of families who live there. To launch the project, the Housing Authority leveraged ACF’s Affordable Housing Loan Fund as a resource. The pre-development loan helped support much of the initial activity required to bring the project to fruition.

“This project has made a huge difference in the quality of life for the families and individuals who live here,” said Gloria Muñoz, Executive Director of the Housing Authority of Maricopa County. “Families who have lived in this neighborhood for decades were able to stay in their homes while benefiting from much-needed upgrades.”
“One of the great privileges in life is the chance to serve my community,” said Joyce Medina Harper, Executive Director of the Dougherty Foundation, Latina Giving Circle member, and former ACF staff member. “I am proud that my work brings more voices to the table—a positive step for equity—and makes it possible for students from all our vibrant Arizona communities to attend and succeed in college.”
Scholarships

The Bishop Henry L. Barnwell Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Scholarship Fund has deep roots in Arizona’s African-American community. The scholarship is named after the late Bishop Henry Barnwell, who fought to make the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.’s birthday a state holiday in Arizona. Despite threats to his life, Bishop Barnwell led non-violent protest marches, meetings, and candlelight services. His ultimate goal was to provide scholarships to students who would be unable to attend college without financial assistance. The scholarship fund has supported students for over 40 years.

The ACF scholarship program allows students to apply for over 100 scholarships at once through a single application, enabling Bishop Henry L. Barnwell Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Scholarship recipients to earn additional awards from other funds. The 25 students awarded this year received additional support from other ACF scholarships totaling $47,350.
Scholarship Committee Member & Scholarship Fundholder

When Bishop Barnwell passed away two years ago, his son, Pastor Aubrey Barnwell, wanted to find a permanent home for the fund that honors his late father. Pastor Barnwell worked with Dr. Wil Counts, who serves on the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration Committee, to move the fund to its new home at ACF in December 2017. Thanks to their involvement, the fund continues to fulfill Bishop Barnwell’s dream of building a pathway to higher education for students of all backgrounds and experiences.

“They weren’t always large scholarships, but they still made a difference,” said Pastor Barnwell. “The amount was enough to show that this community supported local students on their quest to get a higher education. We’ve had students say to us, “That scholarship provided me the money I needed to eat.””

Each year, the Arizona Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration Committee partners with the City of Phoenix to host a series of events honoring the MLK dream and legacy, including a candlelight concert, a march through the city, and a festival. The celebrations kick off with the MLK Awards & Scholarship Breakfast, where the scholarship recipients are recognized for their achievements.

“I was the first African-American pharmacist in the Valley,” said Dr. Counts. “Now, I want young people from my community to have the same opportunities I had.”

Judah Crum was awarded the Bishop Henry L. Barnwell Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Scholarship during the 2018-2019 academic year. She attends Phoenix College, where she studies American Sign Language through the College’s Interpreter Preparation Program. Judah is passionate about sign language and interpretation, and has been since she was a child. “The way my mom tells it is, I was two years old and watching Sesame Street. They had the sign language interpreter box for the show, and I just couldn’t stop watching,” said Judah. “I fell in love with it.”

In addition to her studies, Judah interprets at her church to share the service with those who are deaf or hard of hearing. Once she has completed her degree, she plans to interpret professionally and continue her service in the community.

“As a young African-American woman, I face many obstacles. But these obstacles push me to find new ways of learning and improving my community.”

Pastor Barnwell and Dr. Counts work closely with ACF Senior Director of Community Initiatives Kim Covington to honor Bishop Barnwell’s original vision and expand the scholarship’s reach in the community.
Our story is not complete without the voices of our affiliate partners, who seek to address local challenges with unique solutions.

By listening to the expertise of each Arizona community, we can better steward the gifts of our donors and partners.
The town of Bisbee is lined with Victorian-style houses, cobblestones, and traces of a once bustling mining town. During the Great Depression, the Work Projects Administration built stairways over the historic mule paths, giving residents and visitors access to picturesque views of the town.

The Bisbee 1000 The Great Stair Climb is a fitness challenge that features over 1,000 steps connected by winding roads. The challenge is presented by Bisbee Vogue, Inc., a nonprofit organization whose mission is to promote and support initiatives that enhance the economic vitality, health, and wellness of citizens in southeast Arizona. The inaugural event in 1990 had 200 participants and grew to 2,100 by 2010. In 2012, Bisbee Vogue limited registration to 1,500 and has reached registration capacity every year.

Despite the challenging nature of the course, the event attracts participants of all ages, including children as young as seven and adults who are in their 80s, with varying fitness levels. In 2012, the Bisbee 1000 received the prestigious Governor’s Tourism Award for Special Events in Rural Arizona.

The success of the event led Bisbee Vogue to engage with the Arizona Community Foundation of Cochise to establish a designated fund to provide program support for the organization. Through this engagement and other partnerships, Bisbee Vogue hopes to one day fulfill its vision of adults and youth having easy access to improved sites for exercise and developing lifelong habits for health and wellness.

“Our continuing relationship with ACF will help us to develop new programs,” said Cynthia Conroy, Founder & President of Bisbee Vogue, Inc. “By strengthening the health and wellness opportunities for multi-generational activities, we will advance a culture of recreation in southeast Arizona. Our motto: ‘Small town, great prospects,’ celebrates a bright future with collaborators and partners who will help us fulfill this vision.”

Multiple nonprofit organizations are committed to supporting and advocating for the river guides of Grand Canyon National Park. The Arizona Community Foundation of Flagstaff works with a few of these local organizations to ensure the river guides have the resources they need to deliver unforgettable experiences to those wishing to explore this world-renowned natural wonder.

Grand Canyon River Guides protects and preserves the Grand Canyon and Colorado River experience through education, stewardship, and advocacy. The organization has served as an educational resource and environmental advocate for 30 years. It publishes the Boatman’s Quarterly Review, provides interpretive training through the Guides Training Seminar, collects stories of the river in an extensive oral history project, and delivers a unified voice on the operation of Glen Canyon Dam and other critical issues. The Grand Canyon River Guides Endowment Fund, managed by ACF of Flagstaff, provides stability and creates a lasting legacy that will help protect the Grand Canyon and Colorado River experience into the future.

The Whale Foundation has supported the Grand Canyon guiding community for over 20 years. Through counseling services, mentorship opportunities, financial health education, a scholarship program, and physical health programs, the Whale Foundation works to restore, promote, and celebrate the wellbeing of this invaluable group of professionals. With funding from ACF of Flagstaff, they can keep pace with expanded outreach opportunities and provide necessary support for the newest generation of river guides.

Grand Canyon Youth hosts expeditions along the rivers and canyons of the Southwest to promote personal growth, environmental awareness, community involvement, and teamwork among youth from diverse backgrounds. Funding from ACF of Flagstaff has provided scholarships to youth who otherwise would not be able to participate in these life-changing programs. In addition to the scholarships, ACF of Flagstaff has provided financial support for Grand Canyon Youth to lead the Watershed Collective, a partnership that is working to create an innovative outdoor education curriculum for students throughout Flagstaff Unified School District.

Together, these nonprofits help sustain the Grand Canyon and Colorado River by promoting the shared values of stewardship, education, and community.
Steve Besich grew up in Superior, Arizona, a town just 70 miles east of Phoenix. After graduating from Northern Arizona University, he returned to southeastern Arizona where he worked for the Magma Copper Company. Following the mine’s closure, he chose a career in public service, working for Gila County. He eventually became County Manager, a position he enjoyed for many years. In 2010, Steve passed away following an extended illness.

After Steve passed away, his former colleague Bill Hardy, Executive Director of the Arizona Counties Insurance Pool, established the Steve Besich Scholarship Foundation. “Throughout his life, Steve believed in the greater good of mankind and made his family, friends, and co-workers all the better for it,” said Bill of his late colleague. “For almost 20 years, Steve served as an example for what real leadership should be—commitment, honor, and integrity—a man whose time was cut short, but whose spirit will remain in future generations.” Bill and other county supervisors made donations in memory of Steve, with the hope of providing scholarships to the dependents of county employees throughout rural Arizona.

Steve’s love for his community and passion for public service inspired his family and friends to honor his legacy with scholarships for students to develop their leadership potential. In 2018, a committee was formed to award scholarships and the fund was transferred to the Arizona Community Foundation of the Gila Valley to help administer the assets and facilitate awards. ACF of the Gila Valley will begin to award scholarships from the fund next year, honoring Steve’s memory by supporting future generations of rural Arizona leaders.

“Throughout his life, Steve believed in the greater good of mankind and made his family, friends, and co-workers all the better for it.”

Tessa Brainard graduated from Sedona Red Rock High School in the spring of 2019. Like many of her peers, she was unsure what to do next. While Tessa wanted to continue her education, she was concerned about burdening herself with student loan debt while she explored potential career paths.

Thanks in part to a new Career & Technical Education (CTE) scholarship established at the Arizona Community Foundation of Sedona, Tessa is starting college this fall at Scottsdale Community College, where she hopes to explore majors related to graphic design and the graphic arts. Tessa is just one of the students from Sedona and the Verde Valley who will benefit from the Pathway to Careers Scholarship Fund in its inaugural year, with the intention of building and endowing the fund so it can support students long after she graduates.

ACF of Sedona staff and advisory board members created the fund in 2018 when they recognized a pressing community need—63% of that year’s graduates from local high schools had chosen not to pursue a four-year college degree. Many of those graduates chose instead to pursue CTE in order to develop hands-on training, problem solving skills, and improve their personal and economic growth potential.

Although ACF of Sedona has a robust scholarship program, awarding nearly $50,000 to 18 local students last year, only two of their 12 scholarship funds supported CTE students. The new Pathway to Careers Scholarship Fund adds a third CTE option in order to help bridge the gap between the types of scholarships available and the types of careers many local graduates aspire to pursue.

Sedona and the Verde Valley are primarily service economies which depend on greater trade skills to satisfy the needs of area employers. By placing a greater emphasis on Career & Technical Education, ACF of Sedona aims to help create a stronger regional economy while providing career opportunities for hundreds of local citizens.

“I’m really interested in design. With my scholarship, I will be able to explore the field without taking large student loans.”

Gaps in rural healthcare coverage sparked an idea among a group of local healthcare providers to annually provide a wide array of healthcare services at a single location to Yavapai County residents who may not otherwise seek health services.

The Arizona SonShine Health Fair debuted in 2015, providing immunizations, school physicals, chiropractic care, mental health services, dental care, eye exams and glasses, wellness coaching, and other services. Since the health fair began, the Arizona Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, along with other sponsors including the Town of Prescott Valley, Yavapai County Health Department, Yavapai Regional Medical Center, and Loma Linda University have assisted nearly 4,000 citizens with services valued at almost $3 million.

As the Arizona SonShine Health Fair grew, the expense to provide these services grew too. The organizers had to rent some of the equipment, including specialized dental chairs for patients receiving dental care. In 2018, the Arizona Community Foundation of Yavapai County was able to provide a $40,000 grant for the purchase of dental chairs, saving the health fair the high cost of rentals for future years.

Building upon the success of the Prescott event, Arizona SonShine plans to expand its reach by implementing health fairs in Mohave, Coconino, and Yuma counties. The Holbrook Pyle Foundation, an ACF donor advised fund, is helping to support this expansion by providing $20,000 in grant funding for upcoming health fairs in Payson.

“The impact on our guests is tremendous. Many return yearly, and indicate that this is the only care they receive throughout the year,” said Russell S. Duerksen, Arizona SonShine Vice Chair, Treasurer, and General Counsel. “Some guests are now volunteering, wishing to give back to the community that has provided them with care. The grant from ACF of Yavapai County assists us as we continue to spread these blessings throughout rural Arizona.”

Arizona SonShine seeks to ensure healthcare access for all, a critical step in lifting up rural communities as places of opportunity.

One in four children experience vision problems. Yet, many schools rely on wall charts to conduct vision screenings—a method that was developed over 100 years ago and is susceptible to human error. With that in mind, many schools seek more modern and less error-prone methods of testing their students’ vision. EyeSpy 20/20, a project of the nonprofit VisionQuest 20/20, is one solution. As the world’s only automated, subjective vision screening method, EyeSpy 20/20 is an interactive video game that instantaneously provides results in both English and Spanish.

Upon learning about this new technology, the Arizona Community Foundation of Yuma and its Board of Advisors invited the United Way of Yuma County to apply for children’s health initiative funds. ACF of Yuma was able to tap into funding from one of ACF’s statewide funds dedicated to specific health outcomes.

“Eighty percent of the topics children are expected to learn inside and outside the classroom require good vision, yet Arizona recommends—but does not mandate—vision screening in schools,” said Karina Jones, Director of Marketing and Resource Development for United Way of Yuma County.

“Thanks to ACF of Yuma, the United Way is able to fill that gap and have every child in Yuma County’s vision screened for potential vision disorders.”

Kari Tatar is a Yuma resident and mother to a second grader. Kari had no reason to think her daughter had any vision problems. After learning of the high failure rate among the participants while volunteering to implement the screenings, Kari was motivated to have her daughter screened. Not only did her daughter need glasses, but she also found out she had astigmatism, an eye condition which causes blurry vision at all distances.

EyeSpy 20/20 creates a fun experience for children being scanned, while assessing threshold visual acuity, color vision, and stereopsis accurately and efficiently. In the past year, over 25% of children who participated failed their vision screening, highlighting the need for this type of program to ensure children have access to adequate vision care.

Lillian and Gordon Macgregor had strong ties to the Yavapai County community. Upon their passing in 2002, the Macgregors’ living trust established two endowed funds at the Arizona Community Foundation totaling $220,000. These funds support causes important to Lillian and Gordon.

The first fund, the Lillian & Gordon Macgregor Scholarship for Sedona, supports students from Sedona and the Verde Valley who wish to pursue careers in healthcare or a related field. The second fund was created to provide professional development opportunities for employees at Yavapai Regional Medical Center.

Thanks to the income-generating power of endowment, the two Macgregor funds have grown by 25% while distributing a combined total of over $184,000 to local students and the Yavapai Regional Medical Center Foundation. The current total balance stands at nearly $293,000, providing a reliable source of funding for the communities of Sedona and Yavapai County for years to come.

HOW AN ENDOWMENT WORKS:
1. An endowed gift is made and invested for long term growth.
2. A portion of the fund is distributed to charitable interests annually, forever.
3. Meanwhile, with prudent investment, the remaining fund balance continues to grow.

Opportunity Youth Investments

In the last four years, the Arizona Community Foundation has invested almost $1.3 million in organizations and initiatives that support opportunity youth. Through comprehensive outreach and programming, these organizations equip young adults aged 16 to 24 with skills and resources to launch a career or pursue higher education. Each program has a uniquely effective approach to building connections between these young adults and the opportunities that await them.

Opportunities for Youth is a partnership among nonprofit organizations, education providers, employers, and government agencies focused on connecting young adults with resources for personal growth, educational advancement, and career development. Operating under Arizona State University’s Watts College of Public Service and Community Solutions, Opportunities for Youth collaborates with over 70 local agencies and organizations to connect young adults with employment training, GED and high school diploma resources, college preparation, and more. “This work is important to me,” said Felix Moran, who leads the Youth Outreach Team. “I personally know the struggles that these youth are going through, and I know how powerful it can be to have someone connect with you in that moment, show you respect, and care about where you are headed in life.”
When Aubrey Brookover first interviewed for a barista position with Opportunities for Youth employment partner Starbucks, she faced a number of personal challenges, including homelessness. She began working at the Starbucks community store in Central Phoenix, known as an “Opportunity Café” for its role in training and employing youth from underserved communities. Her managers and colleagues were quickly impressed by her ability to connect with customers.

Aubrey now serves as the general manager of a newly-opened Starbucks in Phoenix. She feels a strong connection to her store and the community it serves.

She hopes to build the same sense of openness and compassion in her store that she encountered years ago. When asked what she’d say to an opportunity youth confronting the journey to employment or school, Aubrey shared honest insight: “It’s not going to be easy, but it doesn’t have to be hard,” she said. “And you don’t have to do it alone.”
After Carlos Alvarez graduated high school, he came across the Arizona Center for Youth Resources, an Opportunities for Youth partner. The center offered Carlos a community outreach internship, where he connected other young people to available education and employment resources. This job served as a stepping stone to another internship at Opportunities for Youth, where Carlos continued to build his professional and personal network. Carlos found this experience invaluable to the start of his career. “It’s best to explore all your options. Partnership organizations like Opportunities for Youth and the Arizona Center for Youth Resources help you gain a lot of different experiences; they’re like a hub to connect you with all sorts of things,” said Carlos. “To me, it’s so important to explore everything that’s out there.” Carlos now works at Starbucks and plans to pursue his degree at Arizona State University.

The Opportunity Café at Starbucks isn’t just a meeting space. It fosters strong connections between individuals with shared challenges and successes.

“I cannot imagine a future where people don’t work together,” said Brenda Thomson, Executive Director of the Arizona Humanities Council and ACF collaborator. “Collaboration is like oxygen. When you are surrounded by the energy, creativity, and support of others, you can breathe deeper, run faster, jump higher, and reach for the stars.”
Violins of Hope tells the remarkable stories of violins played by Jewish musicians during the Holocaust. Israeli violinmaker Amnon Weinstein has devoted the last 20 years to locating and restoring the violins of the Holocaust as a tribute to those who were lost, including 400 of his own relatives. Each violin is accompanied by its own unique and inspiring story, helping to reclaim a lost heritage, giving a voice to the victims, and reinforcing positive messages of hope and harmony.

The Violins of Hope have been played in concert halls and exhibited in museums throughout the world. They tell the stories of those who perished and serve as powerful reminders of an unimaginable experience while reinforcing lessons of tolerance, inclusion, and diversity that are pertinent today and essential for future generations.

Through grants provided by the Rosenbluth Family Charitable Foundation, an ACF supporting organization, and ACF’s Newton and Betty Rosenzweig Fund for the Arts, the five-week program was welcomed to Arizona in the spring of 2019. The community experienced this powerful and emotional journey through educational programs for schools, free exhibitions at local art centers, chamber concerts, an adult lecture series, and a special lecture and book signing by “Violins of Hope” author James A. Grymes.

At the culmination of the Arizona tour, Violins of Hope had engaged over 44,000 people who attended 36 events in the Valley, Flagstaff, Sedona, and Tucson. The letters and guest books collected throughout the program speak to the powerful reminder of history and hope for the future.

The pain of losing his grandparents, uncles, aunts, and cousins during the Holocaust led Amnon Weinstein to create the Violins of Hope. Although most of the musicians who originally played the instruments were silenced by the Holocaust, their voices and spirits live on through the violins that Amnon has lovingly restored. “Working with ACF has been one of the true highlights of my 38 years in the investment industry.”

PROFESSIONAL ADVISOR PARTNERSHIPS

In the late 1980s, when John Ellis and his wife Delys were discussing their philanthropic desires, it became apparent that education was an area they wanted to emphasize; however, they didn’t want to go through the painstaking effort of hiring and staffing a private foundation. In partnership with ACF, John and Delys found another solution.

John Ellis and his wealth advisor Jim Marten met with ACF leadership to discuss opportunities for collaboration between ACF and Merrill Lynch. Those talks led to Merrill Lynch Trust Company acting as investment manager for a new ACF supporting organization established in the mid-2000s, and the Ellis Center for Educational Excellence was born. The relationship grew and became a model for what is now a thriving vehicle for donors who wish to work with their existing advisor while partnering with ACF for additional philanthropic services.

Today, a third of ACF assets are managed externally, providing a platform for professional advisors across the state to support their clients’ philanthropic interests while ensuring millions of charitable dollars are available to our communities. These external investment advisors must be independent of the donor and adhere to ACF investment guidelines, policies, and oversight by ACF’s investment team.

ACF maintains strong ties with our external asset managers to support existing client relationships while providing additional tools to support an individual or family’s charitable interests.

While we honor those named below, we also appreciate the gifts of those who wish to remain anonymous.

Planned gifts through the Arizona Community Foundation allow individuals to support important causes far into the future. The Legacy Society celebrates the generosity and foresight of those who have remembered ACF or a regional affiliate in their will or trust.
“The dictionary definition of philanthropy is ‘love of mankind,’ which really resonates for me,” said Hal Tashman, ACF fundholder and former board member. “Working with ACF has made giving back a wonderful experience, including inspiring me to establish a community foundation in New York for Turkish Americans and another in my hometown in Turkey.”
Family Philanthropy Retreat

Bobette Gorden and Bob Cialdini are longtime believers in the power of philanthropy. As Regents’ Professor Emeritus of Psychology and Marketing at Arizona State University, Dr. Robert Cialdini has spent his entire career conducting scientific research on the power of social influence. His wife Bobette is the Vice President of the family business, INFLUENCE AT WORK®, a speaking, training, and certification company based on Dr. Cialdini’s books and scientific research. Bob and Bobette have chosen to use their financial resources to create positive change in their community.

In 2014, they established the Robert Cialdini and Bobette Gorden Family Foundation, a donor advised fund at ACF. They partnered with ACF to help guide their philanthropic endeavors and engage their children and young grandchildren in philanthropy. After a few years of growing their fund, Bob and Bobette worked with ACF relationship managers Kimberly Kur and Michelle Arndt to develop an interactive opportunity for their children and grandchildren to learn more about philanthropy by becoming immersed in it.

"Now that our grandchildren are old enough, we thought it was important to give them personal experience with philanthropic activity within their community," said Bobette. "We want them to be involved and help us make decisions about grant recommendations that support the things we all care about most."

The Family Philanthropy Retreat provides an experience for Bob, Bobette, their children, and their grandchildren to learn together and make decisions as a family about how their charitable assets should be distributed. In 2019, they held their second annual retreat at the Arizona Grand Hotel in Phoenix. In coordination with ACF, six local nonprofit organizations presented their programs to the family over the two-day retreat, while the family asked pertinent questions and worked together to make grant recommendations from the Robert Cialdini and Bobette Gorden Family Foundation.

Stimulating caring-based conversation is what the retreat is all about for this multigenerational family. Kim & Todd Farran (standing), Leia (8), Dawson (10), Bobette Gorden, Dr. Robert Cialdini, and Hailey (14).
Three Generations of Donors
Long Valley Meadow Restoration
Established in 2001, the Arizona Elk Society is a volunteer-driven organization that believes in nature’s healing power. Its supporters work collaboratively to restore drought-stricken forests and grasslands for the humans who find solace in the state’s natural beauty and the elk and other wildlife that benefit from habitat revitalization.

A nonprofit fundholder at ACF since 2014, Arizona Elk Society partners with state and federal organizations to expand its programming and widen its impact every year. One such program is Heroes Rising Outdoors, which has helped more than 300 returning wounded Veterans use our public lands as a space to recover from the stress of combat and military service. Through fishing, archery, hunting, hiking, camping, horseback riding, rafting, or just engaging in the solitude of these sacred areas, the program creates space and opportunity for peace, healing, and wholeness.

Heroes Rising Outdoors also connects with the families of fallen first responders. Through educational outdoor activities in a summer camp setting, volunteer leaders and partners help these families create bonds and heal.

Arizona Elk Society also offers a variety of youth programs to teach the importance of conservation and outdoor skills. Its almost 1,000 volunteers have invested over $10 million and 100,000 volunteer hours into restoring and improving specific ecosystems, including watersheds, important riparian meadow systems, and wildlife habitats across the state.

The volunteers, donors, and partners who support the Arizona Elk Society have leveraged their love of elk and the outdoors to effect change statewide, bringing much-needed awareness to threatened wildlife habitats and ensuring the joy of the outdoors is passed on to future generations.
Drawn from ACF giving patterns, our philanthropic agenda reflects the intersection of our donors’ interests and the needs of Arizona.

OUR PHILANTHROPIC AGENDA:

1. QUALITY EDUCATION
A quality education system is integral to our state’s economic competitiveness and quality of life. Supported by a sizable endowment, ACF makes significant investments to expand and scale innovative, high-quality reforms to benefit all Arizona students.

2. HEALTH INNOVATIONS
The quality and accessibility of health services are critically important to our shared quality of life. ACF invests in medical centers and emerging research, and provides jump-start funding for medical and healthcare innovations.

3. COMMUNITY IMPROVEMENT & DEVELOPMENT
Safe housing and stable neighborhoods are the building blocks of a healthy community. Investments in this area include affordable housing, economic success initiatives for the working poor, basic needs for Arizona’s most vulnerable populations, and programs that build strong communities for all ages.

4. ENVIRONMENT & SUSTAINABILITY
Arizona’s natural resources are highly valued by residents and visitors alike. With endowments that support animal welfare and an ever-growing interest in sustainability among donors, ACF is forming partnerships that protect, preserve, and responsibly manage Arizona’s natural resources in both urban and rural areas.

5. ARTS & CULTURE
A thriving arts scene and diverse cultural offerings bring enjoyment to communities and are important drivers of our economy. ACF collaborates to build Arizona’s infrastructure to support a vibrant arts and culture community that celebrates our rich history and diversity and brings valuable learning experiences to children and adults.
COMMUNITY INVESTMENTS

Funding from the Arizona Community Foundation and its regional affiliates is awarded year-round to a wide range of community organizations, educational institutions, and faith-based organizations in the form of grants, scholarships, nonprofit loans, and philanthropic prizes. Through these awards, we transform charitable dollars into lasting change.

By providing vital support for our state’s nonprofit organizations, building scholarship opportunities for Arizona students, and advancing the five key areas of our philanthropic agenda, the investments entrusted to us develop and shape our community for the better.

When it comes to grantmaking, we take performing due diligence seriously. Before issuing awards, our staff ensures that all grant recipients are qualified, viable organizations, in good standing. Our Philanthropic Services and Impact Investing committees provide oversight, approving and ratifying all grants, scholarships, and loans. Both committees are comprised of ACF board members and community leaders whose diverse backgrounds and extensive professional expertise help guide the process.

- Advised Grants
  - are the majority of ACF’s grantmaking, distributed from donor advised funds, collaborative funds, and supporting organizations at the recommendation of the founding donor, fund advisors, or committee and advisory board members.

- Designated Grants
  - are distributed from funds designated by donors to support a specific organization in perpetuity and from funds established by nonprofits with their own assets.

- Discretionary Grants
  - are awarded year-round from our field of interest funds and funds for the common good, often through a competitive process. Proposals are evaluated by diverse panels that include ACF board members, regional board of advisor members, community leaders, staff, and subject matter experts.

- Scholarships
  - are awarded to help students achieve their educational goals. ACF is Arizona’s largest private provider of college scholarships, with more than 200 individual scholarship opportunities.

- Nonprofit Loans
  - work alongside conventional grantmaking to generate both financial and social returns.

- Philanthropic Prizes
  - offer individuals, teams, and organizations the opportunity to pursue innovative projects and solve big challenges facing our state.

Richard H. “Dick” Whitney passed away on March 23, 2019 following a courageous battle with cancer. A passionate and courageous civic and community leader, Dick authored the legal documents that established the Arizona Community Foundation, served five years as our chairman, and remained an active supporter throughout his lifetime. In 2019, we honored Dick’s contributions to ACF’s history and passion for the community by renaming our community grantmaking fund the Richard H. Whitney Fund for the Common Good.
new funds were created and donors contributed a total of $68.6 million to new and existing funds. An additional $11.5 million was entrusted to ACF by nonprofits to steward on their behalf, bringing the total assets received to $80.1 million. 64 planned gifts were promised.

grants, scholarships, and distributions were awarded, totaling more than $64 million including $50 million in grants to 2,448 organizations, $4.7 million in scholarships to over 1,600 students, and $1 million in community impact loans, bringing the total grants, scholarships, and loans awarded since ACF’s inception in 1978 to $783 million.

affiliate assets = $117.5 million operating expenses = 1.07% of total assets

INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT

The primary objective of ACF’s investment program is to preserve and grow our endowment by generating returns greater than our spending on grants, social investments, administrative costs, and inflation.

These returns allow us to grow assets through capital appreciation, preserve the purchasing power of the asset base, and fund ACF grantmaking, community programs, and operating expenses.

Our investment program is based on the following pillars:

- Maintaining a “Serve and Amaze” donor-centric philosophy
- Acting solely in the interest of our donors, avoiding conflicts of interest and carrying out duties with care, skill, and professional judgment
- Developing and managing a prudent, diversified investment program that achieves positive long term returns to fund donors’ philanthropic interests
- Investing in and managing asset classes and investment strategies consistent with our investment beliefs, as specified in ACF’s Investment Policy Statement
Investment Choices

We offer a variety of investment options to serve our donors’ charitable goals. While the majority of assets are held in the Long Term Diversified Pool, five other investment options are available to suit various objectives.

Short Term Pool

OBJECTIVE: To preserve capital with minimal volatility.

Intermediate Pool

OBJECTIVE: To grow capital through a balance of public equity and fixed income funds with a moderate level of volatility.

Socially Responsible Pool

OBJECTIVE: To grow capital long term through funds screened for environmental, social, and governance (ESG) factors.

Long Term Diversified Pool

OBJECTIVE: To grow capital long term through a highly-diversified portfolio designed to reduce public market volatility through diversification and enhance returns through private market investments.

Strategic Target Allocations:

- 100% MONEY MARKET
- 20% U.S. LARGE-CAP EQUITY
- 8% U.S. SMALL-CAP EQUITY
- 19% DEVELOPED INT’L EQUITY
- 3% EMERGING MARKET EQUITY
- 50% FIXED INCOME

- 39% U.S. EQUITY
- 31% DEVELOPED INT’L EQUITY
- 30% FIXED INCOME

- 17% U.S. LARGE-CAP EQUITY
- 8% U.S. SMALL-CAP EQUITY
- 17% DEVELOPED INT’L EQUITY
- 3% EMERGING MARKET EQUITY
- 10% PRIVATE EQUITY
- 10% FIXED INCOME
- 15% PRIVATE DEBT
- 20% DIVERSIFYING STRATEGIES

shorter GIVING HORIZON

lower VOLATILITY
Long Term Aggressive Growth Pool

OBJECTIVE: To maximize growth of capital long term through funds that emphasize public equities with less diversification and a high level of volatility.

Externally Managed Funds

At a donor’s request, charitable assets of a certain size may be managed by external money managers who are independent of the donor and agree to follow ACF investment guidelines and policies.

“Telling people ‘I’m from Arizona’ is just the start of a conversation,” said Lisa Stratton, ACF Philanthropic Advisor and fundholder. “My experience growing up in Yuma was different from growing up in any other part of the state. Each region has unique qualities that shape our individual perspectives, but what we all have in common is a desire to build a better Arizona.”
Building Community

The Arizona Community Foundation holds dozens of community events every year, engaging hundreds of donors and celebrating the continued value of partnerships throughout our community.

ACF Celebrates 40 Years

In 1978, a handful of visionaries united as a small but determined team to establish ACF’s guiding values of integrity, stewardship, and exceptional service. Forty years later, we joined together to celebrate the leaders, doers, thinkers, collaborators, innovators, and creators who chose us as their partner in philanthropy.

We transformed the courtyard of our Phoenix office for an extraordinary evening, offering a culinary journey, highlights from our history, and tributes to the past board chairs whose dedication and leadership built our foundation.

Steve Evans, our current board chair, introduced ACF’s founding chairman, Bert A. Getz. Bert’s inspirational speech thanked ACF staff, the board, and past leaders for their hard work and passion for the community. We were honored to host eight of the 13 former board chairs at the celebration.

At the event, we asked our guests, “What inspires you?”

- “Thinking of others first and giving back is what life is all about. A Life of Significance.”
- “I believe in the ripple effect. Small contributions combine to make significant improvements.”
- “Listening to the stories of our nonprofits, donors, and community members.”
- “So many people committed to making a positive change! That inspires me.”
- “Leaders in our community making a difference for others and not asking for anything in return.”
Earlier this year, ACF held its inaugural Investment Forum at The Phoenician in Scottsdale. Over 150 professional advisors and donors heard from a panel of national experts about current financial market trends and future market outlooks. The event concluded with an interview between Mark Feldman, current ACF board member and CEO & Managing Partner of MRA Associates and Vice President Dan Quayle, Chairman of Cerberus Global Investments and 44th Vice President of the United States.

Humor and thoughtful insights paved the way for an honest discussion about the financial market. Photo by Tavits Photography.
Water Public Art Challenge

The Water Public Art Challenge, the third prize offered under the New Arizona Prize, focused on the storytelling afforded by public art. The Challenge emphasized the historical significance of the ancestral Sonoran Desert people (Huhugam), whose irrigation engineering and agricultural achievements created the foundation for life in the Valley of the Sun.

The Challenge culminated in a public showcase and awards ceremony at the Phoenix Art Museum, where 14 finalists displayed digital renderings and plans for temporary public art projects across the Valley. Five teams won $50,000 each to develop their projects, all of which recognize and respect the region’s cultural history and stewardship of water resources.

WATER PUBLIC ART CHALLENGE WINNERS:
City of Mesa | Water=Life, Making the Invisible Visible; Scottsdale Arts, A Deeper Map; The Continuum, Sutldagi Haichu Agga (Water’s Story); Vesich eth vam (All of Us Together), We Are Still Here; Water Heritage Collective, Portal to the Past

Philanthropy for All

Philanthropy for All brings together members of ACF’s cultural giving initiatives to engage diverse communities in addressing high priority needs.

In early 2019, seven storytellers gathered at the Children’s Museum of Phoenix to share what inspired them to give back to their community. The power, vulnerability, and emotion of those stories—many of which were shared publicly for the first time—was truly inspiring.

STORYTELLERS:

Digital renderings were developed in conjunction with the Water Public Art Challenge finalist teams and Moses, Inc. to provide a visual illustration of each proposed public art project; the Philanthropy for All storytellers were coached by Rachel Egboro, creator of The Whole Story and ACF staff member. The financial statements are the responsibility of the Arizona Community Foundation’s management. The Foundation maintains a system of internal accounting controls designed to provide reasonable assurance that transactions are properly executed and recorded in all material respects, assets are safeguarded, and established policies and procedures are carefully followed. The above are audited results for the Arizona Community Foundation’s fiscal year ended 3/31/19. Copies of the three most recent years’ financial statements and corresponding Form 990 tax filings can be viewed online at azfoundation.org/financials or can be provided upon request. Official statements and filings are posted as soon as they are available.

We are Arizonans and this is our community foundation.

Arizona Expertise
The Arizona Community Foundation has a keen understanding of Arizona’s people, needs, and assets. Our staff has deep local knowledge and connections, combined with professional expertise to provide unmatched personal guidance to our fundholders and partners.

Stewardship
More than 99% of ACF charitable funds directly support the causes our donors care about. As good stewards, we operate on thin margins with low cost ratios. Our annual operating budgets are consistently near 1% of assets.

Collaboration & Impact
Since inception, ACF has invested over $783 million in nonprofit organizations and students. These funds achieve meaningful, measurable results and leverage co-investment by other foundations, donors, and government to support Arizona, national, and international causes.

Leadership
For nine consecutive years, ACF has received the coveted 4-star rating from Charity Navigator. Only 3% of the charities evaluated nationwide by Charity Navigator have received at least nine consecutive 4-star ratings, indicating ACF is one of the most financially-efficient charities in America.

Governance
ACF is governed by a 32-member board of directors comprised of community leaders with diverse backgrounds, interests, and professional expertise.

Reach
With regional affiliates in Cochise, Flagstaff, the Gila Valley, Sedona, Yavapai County, and Yuma, we take pride in serving every part of Arizona. Grants are awarded in all 15 Arizona counties, addressing unique local and regional needs. Affiliate offices are led by local staff with expertise in planned giving, donor relations, stewardship, grantmaking, and community development, and are guided by volunteer boards of advisors who are representative of their communities.

Assets
Our trust and endowment assets totaling more than $960 million are professionally managed to safeguard principal and yield a competitive rate of return. Oversight is provided by an Investment Committee comprised of nationally recognized investment experts.

Integrity
ACF is confirmed in compliance with the National Standards for U.S. Community Foundations, voluntarily adopting policies and procedures that strengthen how we conduct business by adhering to the highest ethical standards.
A VERY SPECIAL THANK YOU TO ALL THE PEOPLE WHO SHARED THEIR STORIES AND POSED FOR OUR CAMERAS.
